TEACHERS, PARENTS, STUDENTS - PARTNERING TOGETHER FOR SUCCESS

In the Classroom

The classroom teacher will work with students and their families to support student success in reading & math. Some of our key connections with families will be.

Our school will send home monthly newsletters that will include Reading and Math strategies and/or tips for home.

Teachers will provide links to family friendly websites for building vocabulary, increasing Lexile scores and Math skills.

Teachers will send home READY Math's Family Letter at the beginning of each Math Unit to explain skills and strategies the children will be working on in the classroom.

DCBOE website, which provides parents with access to standards, curriculum maps and resources that can be used at home to help support learning.

At Home

Parents joined staff to develop ideas about how families can support students' success in reading & math. Families may have other ideas to add to this list.

Provide a time and space for students to read their AR books at home.

Utilize resources and websites provided by the school and teacher to support learning.

Attend at least 2 Parent and Family Engagement activities that emphasize Reading and Math activities/strategies.

Join Class Dojo and read monthly newsletters to keep informed of what my child is learning and about opportunities for families to help support the learning.

Students

Students joined staff and parents to develop ideas about how they can succeed in school and reach greater heights in math & reading.

Set my own learning goals and monitor my progress throughout the year using my data folder.

Read my Accelerated Reader book each night.

Discuss new vocabulary words and what I am learning at school with my family.

Bring home monthly newsletters, 4 ½ week progress reports, and encourage my family to sign up for Class Dojo.

What is a School-Parent Compact?

The School-Parent-Student Compact is a written agreement jointly developed by parents, students, faculty, and school staff. The purpose of the compact is to clarify what families and schools can do to help children reach high academic standards. The compact is a clear reminder of everybody's responsibility to take action at school and at home so that children can reach/exceed their academic goals.

Jointly Developed and Continuous Feedback

The parents, students and staff of West Bainbridge Primary School developed this School-Parent Compact for Achievement. Teachers suggested home learning strategies, parents added ideas to make them more specific, and students told us what would help them learn. Meetings are held each year to review the compact and make changes based on student needs.

Parents are welcome to provide feedback on the School-Parent Compact at any time. Visit our Parent Resource Room or access the district website @ dcboe.com/wbe to complete the Stakeholder Feedback Form

Activities to Build Partnerships

There are many opportunities at our school for parents to volunteer and play a role in their child's education. All volunteers and classroom participants must be trained via the District's Parent Volunteer Training Program. Program information may be found in the WBE Parent Resource Room, at the District Parent Resource Center, and on the District Website.
